

SENTENCE FRAGMENT WORKSHEET #2

EXERCISE

In the blank provided, indicate whether the following word groups are complete sentences or fragments.

EX:

The play was scheduled for 8:00 p.m.

Complete Sentence

1. Margaret, donning her costume and preparing for the curtain to rise.

F _____

2. Calm but excited, she had given no thought to being nervous.

CS _____

3. But when the music actually started, Margaret suddenly found herself panicked.

CS _____

4. While she was backstage waiting for her cue.

F _____

5. Her hands sweating and her stomach fluttering as if she had swallowed a butterfly.

F _____

6. Too late to escape now, though she was tempted to do just that.

F _____

7. She heard her cue and found herself on stage with her mouth beginning to open.

CS _____

8. Wondering if her voice would pull through.

F _____

9. With the first note, the nervousness disappeared, and she sang.

CS _____

10. Wearing shoes too big and fell down the steps.

F _____

11. A storm to surpass all others raged the entire night.

CS _____

12. Has heard that song on the radio several times already.

F _____

13. Bill cannot attend school this semester.

CS _____

14. The mother holding the frightened child firmly.
F_____

15. Trying to prepare herself for the final exam.
F_____

16. Sam, in a moment of uncontrolled anger, hit me.
CS_____

17. Attempting to hide the incriminating evidence.
F_____

18. But the children tried to help in any way they could.
CS_____

19. Todd being large enough to be a sumo wrestler.
F_____

20. He decided to play soccer instead.
CS_____