

DETERMINERS EXERCISE #2

Place determiners in front of the nouns in these sentences.

ANSWERS WILL VARY.

1. Buying _____ a _____ dog can be _____ an _____ exciting adventure or _____ a _____ miserable ordeal.
2. First, you have to consider _____ the _____ breed of _____ the _____ dog.
3. _____ Some _____ dogs have particular characteristics which make them unique.
4. _____ Its _____ characteristics can bring advantages or disadvantages.
5. _____ A _____ German Shepherd is a remarkably good dog.
6. However, _____ Most _____ German Shepherds suffers from a range of health problems, especially bad hips.
7. _____ A _____ Boxer is a wonderful dog.
8. Yet, _____ Some _____ Boxers have disciplinary issues and are not as obedient as one would think.
9. _____ A _____ Poodle is wonderful dog.
10. Poodles, however, suffer from another serious problem for _____ the _____ owners, hair.
11. Poodles, like other dogs in _____ this _____ class, need constant grooming, which can be tedious and expensive.
12. On the other hand, _____ a _____ long-haired Golden Retriever is a wonderful dog whose hair is overly plentiful and falls out easily.
13. As _____ a _____ future dog owner, one needs to keep in mind _____ these _____ things.
14. Likewise, _____ a _____ dog owner needs to be aware of other concerns, such as diet.
15. _____ Some _____ dogs like the Great Dane and the Irish Wolf Hound are massive animals, which require much more food than most dogs.
16. _____ The _____ Great Dane or Irish Wolf Hound may literally eat you out of _____ your _____ house.