

LIST OF PAST PARTICIPLE CONSTRUCTIONS

A participle is a form of a verb (similar to tense) which indicates a completed action.

Typically, participles are used to help construct passive-voiced sentences and help to construct perfect tenses.

Most participles contain the following suffixes (letters on the end of the root word):

-t or -en or -ed or -ght

Awoken

Been

Begun

Bitten

Broken

Built

Bought

Chosen

Cut

Dealt

Drawn

Dreamt

Drunk

Driven

Eaten

Fallen

Fed

Felt

Forgiven

Forgotten

Fought

Found

Given

Grown

Hung

Hidden

Held

Kept

Known

Left

Meant

Proven
Risen
Shaken
Slept
Spoken
Stolen
Swept
Taken
Taught
Thought
Thrown Understood
Withdrawn
Written
Worn