

ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS WORKSHEET #2

EXERCISE

Underline any adjective or adverb that is incorrectly used. Then write the correct form at the right. Write C if the sentence is correct.

Example: I sure wish you hadn't dropped the class.                      Surely

1.        When you speak sharply to me, I feel badly.
2.        His mother looked sharp at Mark when he defied her.
3.        The major looks especially well in his dress uniform.
4.        Of the two short stories, I'm not sure which one I like best.
5.        Sometimes it is real hard to understand your actions.
6.        The river flowed rapid through the long, rocky gorge.
7.        Please sit up straightly in your seat.
8.        Do you think that a great writer always has a unique style?
9.        For a moment the hummingbird hovered uncertain in front of the hummingbird feeder.
10.       In spite of his good preparations, John played bad at the tennis tournament.
11.       We drove steady all the way from California to Nebraska.
12.       Of the two sisters, Susan is the tallest.
13.       She sounded foolishly as she rattled on about the number of proposals she had had.
14.       The bushes in the back yard grew rapid in one year's time.
15.       Bill, who had always been a small child, grew tall while he was away to school.