

ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS WORKSHEET #3

EXERCISE

Choose the correct word of the choices given.

1. He had translated his Spanish (regular, regularly), so he had no difficulty handling the test.
2. Susan certainly did (good, well) in her performance of Blithe Spirits.
3. Charlotte looked (radiant, radiantly) as she sat holding her new-born child.
4. As you read the two magazines, try to decide which one you like (better, best).
5. Last night's speaker was (real, really) dull.
6. To repair the damage to her car cost (considerable, considerably) more than she had expected.
7. We (sure, surely) don't want to spend the entire summer working inside.
8. Which of these three Japanese cars gets the (better, best) mileage.
9. Driving too (rapid, rapidly) for the conditions, she skidded and rolled her car.
10. The rich chocolate cake tastes too (sweet, sweetly) for me.
11. I will always remain (wary, warily) of certain types of dogs.
12. One can buy gasoline (cheaper, more cheaply) now than one year ago.
13. Once my fever was gone, I felt (good, well) again.
14. Our whole neighborhood felt (good, well) about the opening of the new school.
15. The art collection in the San Francisco is the (better, best) of the two.