

ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS WORKSHEET #4

EXERCISE

Select the correct form of the word in parentheses.

1. Paul is certain that he did not do (good, well) on his test.
2. This chalk is not satisfactory: it breaks (easy, easily).
3. Of course, Sam feels (badly, bad) about his situation.
4. The children remained (quiet, quietly), even though our flight had been delayed.
5. To recognize this truth, Mr. Lyly (surely, sure) must have had a great deal of experience.
6. I feel (optimistically, optimistic) about my chances of working at Grand Canyon National Park this year.
7. By driving (steady, steadily) all night, the truckers were able to deliver the strawberries on time.
8. Of all the ice cream flavors sold here, I still like chocolate (best, better).
9. Although we had climbed (steady, steadily) all morning, we still had not reached the campsite by mid-afternoon.
10. I've heard that Heathrow is the (busier, busiest) of all the international airports.
11. I believe that Sheba is the (lazier, laziest) of the two cats.
12. I will always remain (wary, warily) of Buster Crump, our neighborhood bully.
13. The whipped cream tastes too (sweet, sweetly) for me.
14. Once my fever was gone, I soon felt (good, well) again.
15. Our whole neighborhood felt (good, well) about the decision to reopen Bruce Elementary School.
16. Edgar (sure, surely) is glad that he has been asked to join the orchestra.
17. The photography collection in the New Orleans Museum is the (finer, finest) of the two.