

DANGLING MODIFIERS WORKSHEET #2

EXERCISE

Each of the following sentences contains a dangling modifier. Rewrite the sentences by changing the subject so it can correctly serve as an understood subject for the phrase, or change the phrase to a clause containing its own subject.

Example: To drive an off-road vehicle, a license is required.

To drive an off-road vehicle, one is required to have a license.

1. When shampooing a carpet, the dirtiest spots need pre-spotting.

2. After thinking the cat was going to die, it started to get better.

3. To pass the course, attendance is critical.

4. Before being admitted to college, an assessment test is required.

5. After adding an extra can of clams, the chowder should be delicious.

6. Working in my yard, drinking water can be refreshing.

7. Leaving the hose running, the house was flooded.

8. In sewing a wedding dress, an instruction sheet is necessary.

9. Obscured by the trees on the side of the road, the crossroad came up too quickly.

10. If found, please call animal control.
