

DIRECT OBJECTS WORKSHEET #1

EXERCISE

For the following sentences: Underline the Subject. Circle the Direct Object.

1. The referee stopped the fight.
2. Jack brought the beautiful flowers.
3. Joan bought a bicycle.
4. Power plants use fuel.
5. The work of animals provided power in early civilizations.
6. The flow of water turned other simple machinery.
7. Fire created light and heat for centuries.
8. An engine changes energy from heat into mechanical motion.
9. Heat from burning fuel creates steam from water.
10. James Watt invented the first steam engine.
11. The food smells good.
12. The drink tastes bitter.
13. Bob is a ninth-grader.
14. Keri feels lonely.
15. The motor in our jeep sounds different.
16. My brother often becomes a clown at parties.
17. The Garcia's seemed satisfied with their new retirement home.
18. One of the bears appeared very ferocious.
19. The flowers on the south side looked wilted.
20. The place of his birth remains a mystery to everyone.
21. The water from the artesian well smelled foul.
22. The bread tastes fresh.

23. Bob returned the tools.
24. Dan is my friend.
25. Maria finished the problem.
26. The umpire made a mistake.
27. The wall sounds hollow.
28. The guard warned us.
29. Mandy raises rabbits.
30. They are white.
31. She keeps them in cages.
32. The field was soggy after the rain.
33. We watched the football game.
34. The game is too rough for me.
35. The fans gave a wild cheer.
36. The detective on the case grew suspicious of the victim's wife.
37. Pistons turn the wheels of locomotives.
38. Thomas Edison opened the first electric power station in 1882.
39. The professors feel disappointed with the results of the experiment.
40. Leon's left jab was painful to his opponents.
41. Coal, oil, and wood made the heat for steam.
43. The punch on the front table tasted rather sour.
44. Paul investigated the power of magnets in Roman times.