

DIRECT OBJECTS WORKSHEET #2

EXERCISE

For the following sentences: Underline the Subject. Circle the Direct Object.

1. The babies grew nervous from the loud noise.
2. Electricity provides power for engines and appliances.
3. Watermelon sometimes tastes better with salt.
4. They are the sponsors of the contest.
5. He rubbed a piece of amber against his sleeve.
6. The amber attracted a floating feather.
7. For years her ancestors were the town leaders.
8. Some new power plants use atomic fuels instead of oil and coal.
9. Experiments in England and Germany revealed the nature of electricity.
10. Michael Faraday invented the first dynamo.
11. The officer at the end is the one in charge.
12. Locker rooms after a game smell bad.
13. The force of steam moves pistons in the steam engine.
14. Steam engines moved ships across the sea.
15. The soloist sounded flat to me.
16. By evening Mother felt extremely tired.
17. I become dizzy in high places.
18. Centuries separated the work of these people from later discoveries.
19. Modern powerhouses contained dynamos.
20. This machine generated an electrical current.
21. The house across the street looks deserted.
22. Our patient grows weaker daily.

23. His invention kept steam at high temperatures.
24. His answer to the problem was inaccurate.
25. The librarian gave me Stephen King's most recent novel.
26. From the market Grandmother brought us several pieces of candy.
27. Dave Justice gave Jose his autograph.
28. Uncle Rush gave each child several beautiful but worthless gems.
29. From the catalog we ordered Wesley a new tent.
30. Carlos is teaching me ballet.
31. My grandfather told me my first ghost story.
32. The coach threw her a fast pitch.
33. Will the doorman call you a cab?
34. The poet read the class some of his poetry.
35. I will prepare them supper before leaving.
36. Write him a letter when you get home.
37. The Dean taught us physics.
38. On second thought, order our table the chef's special.
39. You should not deny me the right to defend myself.
40. The company awarded each retiree a month's vacation anywhere in the world.
41. Senator Jones sent Emma a copy of the bill.
42. May I ask you a question?
43. On Sunday mornings, Father cooks everyone breakfast.
44. Louise gave the Johnsons her tickets for the opera.
45. The judge denied the prisoner bail.
46. Each morning Trix brings Dad his paper.
47. Before you go, please hand me a tissue.
48. My Aunt Sarah bought me a ticket on the Orient Express.

49. Every Saturday night, Grandma told us stories of her childhood.
50. In last week's game, the quarterback threw me a short, sideline pass.
51. The pageant gave Sasha an award for congeniality.
52. Bill's mother baked him a beautiful cake for his twentieth birthday.
53. The court granted the defendant a new hearing.
54. Kim's professor gave her a failing grade on the last paper.
55. Mr. Meyers brought the class some donuts.