

MISPLACED MODIFIERS WORKSHEET #1

Directions: Rewrite the following faulty sentences by moving the modifiers so they give correct modification.

1. I learned that my brother was in a car accident in a letter.

---

---

2. All criminals must answer for their crimes to someone.

---

---

3. At the age of twenty-two I learned about motherhood suddenly.

---

---

4. I had trouble deciding which job to take at first.

---

---

5. A forum was announced on dating during the noon hour.

---

---

6. Many faculty talk to colleagues whose offices are adjacent over the telephone.

---

---

7. Shakespeare plays on characteristics of human nature superbly.

---

---

8. All modifiers ending in -ly are not adverbs.

---

---

9. She revealed her past dealings with the Mafia in her latest interviews.

---

---

10. Students sometimes resent the attempts to pry into their personal lives by counselors.

---

---

11. I only wanted thirty minutes of his time.

---

---