

PRONOUN-ANTECEDENT AGREEMENT

EXERCISE

(1) Underline the antecedent to the pronoun. (2) Name whether it is singular or plural; (3) then circle the correct pronoun that would agree with the antecedent.

- _____ 1. Every one of the children denied (their, her) involvement in the prank.
- _____ 2. Both of the schools in the north part of the city have changed (their, its) curriculum to include more language classes..
- _____ 3. Neither of the department stores has begun (their, its) Fourth of July sales.
- _____ 4. The legislature voted to postpone (their, its) adjournment until Saturday noon.
- _____ 5. Has anybody read enough of (their, his/her) assignment to explain it to me?
- _____ 6. The alumni in the Spokane area are looking forward to (their, his) spring luncheon.
- _____ 7. I can't find my pants because Margaret took (them, it) to the cleaners.
- _____ 8. Neither Susan nor Flossie have time to trade in (their, her) old car.
- _____ 9. Every one of us should have stated (their, his/her) position on the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument.
- _____ 10. Have Gerald and Doni already set up housekeeping in (their, her) new house?