

PRONOUN WORKSHEET #1

EXERCISE

Underline and correct the incorrect pronoun.

1. Did Mrs. Smith say the cat had had it's distemper shot?
2. Is it her at the door?
3. The owner asked who had chosen the paintings for the house.
4. The candidate whom I believe is the most honest is not the popular choice.
5. Next July the eight of we family members want to attend the Shakespearean festival.
6. The people we saw at the Parade of Homes were them.
7. Whom did Mary say was to be speaker tonight?
8. Please give the check to whomever answers the door.
9. Our Canadian friends asked Duane and I to have dinner with them.
10. A guide and us students will hike to Timpanogos Cave tomorrow.
11. Shawna, just give the message to whoever you find in the benefits office.
12. The teacher is interested in us seeing the movie since we discussed the plot in class.
13. The award will go to whomever gives the best presentation.
14. Why don't we invite the Whites to go to dinner with you and I?
15. The students elected she and I student body officers.
16. Do you know whose to bring the drinks to the party?
17. Since I haven't seen Sharon for such a long time, I'm not surprised I thought Susan to be her.
18. Greg can't jump nearly as high as him.
19. Ask anyone but he for help.
20. Sam, who were you supposed to help?
21. Duane has read more books than either you or I.
22. Do you know who Mary believes will get an Oscar this year?
23. His mom advised against him driving all night.