

SENTENCE FRAGMENT WORKSHEET #1

EXERCISE

Indicate whether the following groups of words are complete sentences (C) or sentence fragments (F).

EX: While I was walking down the road to the grocery store which was on the corner. (F)

1. Pre-history is often defined as that time when man learned how to survive in a hostile environment.
2. The snake by shedding its skin.
3. During the days of the big luxury cars, a man's wealth and prestige were frequently judged by the size of his car.
4. Our knowledge about humankind and our world has greatly increased, but this knowledge has not provided the improved living conditions we assumed it would.
5. When they realized that the rain was not going to stop right away.
6. Having finished his composition, Max, who is an extensive writer.
7. The immense interest in sports in America.
8. Having already lost her home, she was terrified of losing her family.
9. The dinosaur age came to an end as dinosaurs made their final attempt to survive and failed.
10. How an educated woman like my neighbor could accept such an illogical attitude about the rain forest.
11. The desire for wealth has existed since ancient times when people were judged by the size of their flock.
12. Although he accepted the blame for the faulty fuel pump.
13. The tragedy of Willy Loman's death seems close when Biff realizes that he can't be what his father wants him to be.
14. Before layman wrote, religious and historic documents were limited to the monasteries.
15. The Uinta National Forest, extending about 120 miles east from northeast Utah to southwest Wyoming.
16. When studying the Near Eastern countries' attitudes toward life, death, and the world beyond, we must remember these religions are extremely complex to the Western point of view.

17. If values are in transition, then society itself, which is in transition.
18. A curious child is delightful to behold.
19. What we can accomplish through expanding our point of view.
20. Having taken her parents' advice. She studied art and business.
21. Although he is not the banquet speaker, he is the president of the University of Utah.
22. My old pick-up, which I use every day. I think it will never wear out.
23. Those who are interested in a class dealing with math anxiety should meet in room 326 at 3:30 today.
24. If you or your company needs more information on data processing.
25. Joseph's tales of his adventures traveling down the Amazon.