

SUBJECTS, VERBS, AND COMPLEMENTS WORKSHEET

EXERCISE

Identify each of the underlined words by naming how it is used in the sentence.

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------------|
| (1) Subject | (4) Indirect Object |
| (2) Verb | (5) Subject Complement |
| (3) Direct Object | |

1. Generally speaking, Yorktown was the last real battle of the American Revolution.
2. Every spring I take long walks in the country.
3. Will you bring me my glasses?
4. Everyone thought the interview informative.
5. Will is a crusty old friend of mine.
6. Your nephew is quite handsome.
7. Several years ago in Venice, I shared a motorboat-taxi with a couple from Butte, Montana.
8. Tom is extremely bright.
9. Agriculture research is vital to America's future.
10. The committee will probably elect James secretary.
11. Every morning the dog brings Dad the paper.
12. Our sorority is exploring new ways to make money.
13. Her tone was unnecessarily belligerent.
14. Ellen's field of specialization is political science.
15. My brother does not consider Nancy pretty.
16. His explanations are simple and direct.
17. He is always complaining about something.
18. Insulation can reduce energy consumption by as much as fifteen percent.
19. There is a piece of chocolate cake in the kitchen.
20. I consider Brian a friend.
21. I think Mother is cooking us spaghetti for supper.

22. Last week Susan began her first semester at Brown University.
23. Children love Halloween.
24. Miss Piggy has great charm.
25. I promised my niece a trip to the Orient.
26. Do you consider your answer complete?
27. Women in some countries have very few rights.
28. He appears quite young.
29. Spelling correctly is essential for a reporter.
30. I offered him my advice on the subject.