

SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT WORKSHEET #4

EXERCISE

Circle the subjects and underline the correct form of the verb in the following sentences.

1. A fear of spiders (are, is) common to many people.
2. Radio, together with the newspaper and television, (serve, serves) as a source of information and entertainment.
3. Neither of them (has, have) ever seen an eclipse.
4. The group (are, is) unable to agree among themselves on where to spend the night.
5. He is one of those athletes with natural ability who (do, does) not have to practice often.
6. In the Delta Center (was, were) over thirty thousand fans.
7. Physics (has, have) been called the poetry of the sciences.
8. Each of the employees (have, has) responsibilities.
9. Under the seat (was, were) his notebook and a flashlight.
10. Either her brothers or her father (are, is) responsible for her care.
11. Most of the workers (earn, earns) a comfortable wage.
12. All of my friends (tease, teases) me about my size.
13. One of the living room lights (are, is) burned out.
14. He is the only one on the block who (refuse, refuses) to help improve the neighborhood.
15. In the sink (was, were) a stack of dirty dishes.
16. There (was, were) not enough cake for everyone.
17. Both Berlin and London (has, have) been the site of the Olympics.
18. The secret of their successes (was, were) their strong determination.
19. Two dollars (are, is) too much money to pay for a bag of popcorn.
20. Neither the mail nor the newspapers (has, have) been delivered.