

SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT WORKSHEET #5

EXERCISE

Circle the subjects and underline the correct form of the verb in the following sentences.

1. There (was, were) no gas in the car.
2. One out of every two marriages in California (end, ends) in divorce.
3. All of the snow (has, have) melted.
4. Alongside the interstate (was, were) a rest area with tables and benches.
5. The news from the camp (was, were) not very positive.
6. Each of the class members (receive, receives) an exercise packet.
7. Somebody in the apartments upstairs (exercise, exercises) loudly every night.
8. The captain as well as the crew (was, were) blamed for the oil spill.
9. Four minutes (are, is) no longer an unattainable time for running the mile.
10. Nothing (has, have) survived of his photos except for some charred paper.
11. Many of today's job applicants (is, are) unqualified.
12. One of the best spy books ever written (are, is) by Robert Ludlum.
13. Either the cat or the kitten (have, has) made the mess.
14. On the shelf (was, were) a collection of vases and figurines.
15. Those in the apartment house who (pay, pays) early will get a reduction on their utilities bill.
16. Neither of those academic programs (is, are) adequate.
17. There (is, are) the only one of the original books left.
18. Half of the drinks (was, were) cola.
19. Everyone except the two managers (has, have) finished the exercise.
20. There (was, were) only a dozen children playing at the playground.
21. When (is, are) the news broadcast on that radio station?

22. After watching the Olympics, we were aware that gymnastics (is, are) an activity in which the Russians excel.
23. Because the winter was mild, a part of the peach crop (is, are) lost.
24. On the stage (remains, remain) a wooden table, a hard chair, and a bed.
25. Have you noticed that some of the peas (is, are) still in the field?
26. Anyone found carrying weapons (is, are) in danger of severe punishment.
27. (Was, were) either of those two actors in Gone with the Wind?
28. He should have questioned me, who (am, is) in charge of administering the examination.
29. Do you know where Bill or Mary (is, are)?