

ARTICLE WORKSHEET #1

EXERCISE

Add A or AN when appropriate.

- _____ power line
- _____ crime
- _____ authority figure
- _____ protest
- _____ tax
- _____ earth-like planet
- _____ garden
- _____ ice sculpture
- _____ lightning rod
- _____ power plant
- _____ algebraic equation
- _____ mountain range
- _____ angle
- _____ geometric figure
- _____ arch
- _____ square
- _____ army
- _____ attack
- _____ airplane
- _____ jet
- _____ inventor
- _____ u-turn
- _____ u-boat
- _____ ugly person
- _____ actor
- _____ ulcer
- _____ director
- _____ uncontrollable child
- _____ CIA operative
- _____ FBI agent

EXERCISE

Add A, AN, or THE when appropriate.

When beginning their training, _____ astronaut needs to know how to fly _____ airplane. He/she must know how to work _____ flight controls, as well as monitor _____ radar for other air traffic. In training for space flight, _____ astronaut must also know how to fly _____ jet (_____ much faster version of _____ plane). Generally, he/she must know _____ inner workings of both types of aircraft, as well as understand _____ physics involved in flight. Finally, _____ astronaut must understand _____ different dangers related to flying in bad weather on _____ earth as well as understand _____ different dangers related to flying in _____ low-gravity environment. Being _____ astronaut can be one of _____ most difficult yet _____ rewarding jobs in _____ entire galaxy.