

DETERMINERS EXERCISE #2

Place determiners in front of the nouns in these sentences.

1. Buying _____ dog can be _____ exciting adventure or _____ miserable ordeal.
2. First, you have to consider _____ breed of _____ dog.
3. _____ dogs have particular characteristics which make them unique.
4. _____ characteristics can bring advantages or disadvantages.
5. _____ German Shepherd is a remarkably good dog.
6. However, _____ German Shepherds suffers from a range of health problems, especially bad hips.
7. _____ Boxer is a wonderful dog.
8. Yet, _____ Boxers have disciplinary issues and are not as obedient as one would think.
9. _____ Poodle is wonderful dog.
10. Poodles, however, suffer from another serious problem for _____ owners, hair.
11. Poodles, like other dogs in _____ class, need constant grooming, which can be tedious and expensive.
12. On the other hand, _____ long-haired Golden Retriever is a wonderful dog whose hair is overly plentiful and falls out easily.
13. As _____ future dog owner, one needs to keep in mind _____ things.
14. Likewise, _____ dog owner needs to be aware of other concerns, such as diet.
15. _____ dogs like the Great Dane and the Irish Wolf Hound are massive animals, which require much more food than most dogs.
16. _____ Great Dane or Irish Wolf Hound may literally eat you out of _____ house.