

PREPOSITION EXERCISE #1

Underline the prepositions in these sentences.

1. We are going to Rebecca's house on the other side of town.
2. We will need to travel on the highway north towards her home.
3. When we have traveled twenty minutes on the highway, we should take a right.
4. After following the county road for two miles, we should take a left.
5. After taking the left, we should follow the road for five miles.
6. After driving five miles on the road, we need to venture right towards the old fire station.
7. After the fire station, we should drive towards the large hill on the horizon.
8. When we arrive at the large hill, we need drive towards the last house on the block.
9. The last house on the block will be passed some farms and a ranch.
10. One of the ranches will have an old car from the 1960s in the front yard.
11. One of the farms will have a huge field of corn next to a huge field of soybeans.
12. Just before Rebecca's house, we will see a driveway on the Westside of the house.
13. We need to park on the Westside driveway in order to let others park in the front of the house.
14. This should be an interesting trip to her house.